

Carl Lewis

Olympic Gold Multi Medallist

Carl Lewis is the personification of success

Carl Lewis has eight Olympic gold medals to his name. Incredibly, he was on every US Olympic team from 1980 to 1996. The Carl Lewis Foundation helps disadvantaged youths, and is just one of many charitable works that he is now involved with.

TOPICS:

- Success is ...
- a journey, not a destination
- being always addicted to hope
- serving as an ambassador of enthusiasm
- embracing the negatives
- life without limits
- being a go-getter and a go-giver
- living for the marathon not the 100m dash
- running with the right crowd
- writing a letter to your grandchildren

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

His World Championship record is equally impressive. Between 1983 and 1995 he won eight Olympic Gold medals, one Silver and one Bronze. Voted track and field athlete of the decade in the 1980s, he dominated the sprints and long jump. He has appeared in numerous films and TV productions. Among them, he played himself in cameos in Perfect Strangers and Speed Zone!, and was also seen in Material Girls. In 2009, he was nominated a Goodwill Ambassador for the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization. In 2011, he filed petitions to run as a Democrat for New Jersey State Senate, US.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

In his speeches, Carl Lewis, having lived his life saying "I Can Do That," shows audiences how they too "Can Do That". How to achieve and sustain success are the two main threads of his message and it is a message that he has realised time and again.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Articulate, inspiring and powerful, he draws you into his winning spirit.
