

Lord Mervyn King of Lothbury

Former Governor of the Bank of England

"Regarded as one of the world's most respected and significant leaders in central banking"

Mervyn King (Lord King of Lothbury, KG, GBE, FBA) was Governor of the Bank of England and Chairman of its Monetary Policy Committee from 2003 to 2013. He steered the Bank of England through the deepest financial crisis and together with other central bankers, Lord King prevented a great depression by creating economic stability in the banking sector.

TOPICS:

- The Macro Economic Landscape
- Eurozone's Crisis
- Financial Markets
- The International Monetary System
- Banking Industry
- Inflation - Cost of Living Crisis
- Navigating Economic Challenges in a New World Economy

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

PUBLICATIONS:

- 2020 Radical Uncertainty: Decision-making Beyond the Numbers (Co-authored)
- 2016 The End of Alchemy: Money, Banking and the Future of the Global Economy

IN DETAIL:

Lord King is Alan Greenspan Professor of Economics and Professor of Law at New York University and Emeritus Professor of Economics at the London School of Economics. As a distinguished figure who has shaped public discourse over the last 30 years, he offers a unique depth to the economic challenges that face the new world economy. In 2022, Lord King was awarded the inaugural Guido Carli Bancor Prize which celebrates the personalities of the economic-financial world who have distinguished themselves for their competence, integrity, and transparency.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Lord King's profound understanding is of immeasurable worth to businesses striving to elevate their competitive edge and gain from his unquestionably astute guidance.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

With a wealth of knowledge gained from three eventful decades guiding the United Kingdom amidst economic turmoil, Lord Mervyn King takes us on an exhilarating journey through the world of monetary policy and sheds light on the path ahead for the global economy. Discussions are a riveting exploration of the past, present, and future of financial landscapes.