

Neil Back MBE

World Cup Winning England Rugby Union Player

"Neil is one of the UK's most famous sporting personalities"

Neil Back MBE is one of Rugby's most important ambassadors. Recognised for his incredible dedication for achieving the very best result for his team, he was in the World Cup winning England side in 2003. Quick, powerful and with a far wider range of skill than a typical forward, he played for the Leicester Tigers for 15 years.

TOPICS:

- After Dinner
- Motivation
- Coaching Sessions
- Host and Awards
- Golf Days

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Since retiring from the sport, Neil has lent his own expertise and years of experience to a range of different clubs, providing them with his own unique insights into the key to success, boosting team performance and morale with his motivational approach and insightful coaching techniques. He also played for the British and Irish Lions and was named in the 2005 squad. His incredible ability meant that he was the oldest player to ever be named in the side and he played his last top-flight game of international rugby as part of the team, a fitting end to his incredible international career.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Neil Back is a charming guest speaker and question answerer suited to a wide range of events. His many different experiences of both domestic and international rugby test matches ensure that he is perfectly placed to provide a wide range of audiences with a fascinating insight into his career, both as an international rugby star and as a team-mate of some of the sport's most respected figures.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Neil is an incredibly relaxed and captivating speaker, humorous and deeply insightful, speaking to audiences from a wide range of organisations.