IN DETAIL:

Stephen Fry first came to attention in the 1982 Cambridge Footlights Revue presentation, The Cellar Tapes. Apart from his work in television, he has contributed columns and articles for newspapers and magazines, and has written four novels and an autobiography. Stephen is enormously well-loved for his numerous television appearances, including The Young Ones, Blackadder, Saturday and Friday Live, Alas Smith and Jones, The Lenny Henry Show, A Bit Of Fry And Laurie, Jeeves and Wooster, The Wind in the Willows, The Thin Blue Line and Fortysomething among others. His film credits include Peter's Friends, The Good Father, The Secret Policeman's Other Ball, A Handful of Dust and A Fish Called Wanda. He has also featured in documentaries on countless subjects very close to his heart. Stephen is the co-owner of Sprout Pictures, an independent film and television company.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

His presence at any event adds prestige and good humour, delighting fans and non-fans. Now in demand as an after dinner speaker at corporate entertainment events, Stephen is able to use a mix of humour and wit to offer his audiences a memorable and entertaining evening.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

Britain's best-loved comic genius, Stephen Fry is a wonderfully funny and highly informative speaker and presenter.
